S.R.O. 1944.—In exercise of the powers conferred by the proviso to article 309 and, in relation to persons serving in the Indian Audit and Accounts Department, also by clause (5) of article 148, of the Constitution, the President, after consultation with the Comptroller and Auditor General as regards the persons referred to above, hereby directs that the following further amendments shall be made in the Revised Leave Rules, 1933, namely:—

In the said Rules—

- I. In rule 2, after clause (vi), the following clause shall be inserted, namely:—

“(vii) persons in Class IV service who were subject to the leave rules in the Fundamental Rules on the 31st March 1957, and elected these rules with effect from the 1st April 1957.”

II. In rule 3—

- (1) The existing Note below clause (iv) shall be renumbered as "Note 1".
- (2) After Note 1 as so renumbered, the following Note shall be inserted, namely:—

"NOTE 2.—In the case of an officer mentioned in clause (vii) of rule 2, the leave on average pay to his credit on the 31st March 1957, shall, subject to a maximum of 180 days, be deemed to be earned leave to his credit on that date."

- (3) The existing Note below clause (v) shall be renumbered as "Note 1".
- (4) After Note 1 as so renumbered, the following Note shall be inserted, namely:—

"NOTE 2.—In the case of an officer mentioned in clause (vii) of rule 2, leave on half average pay and leave on quarter average pay availed of before the 1st April 1957 shall be deemed to be half pay leave for the purposes of this clause".

- (5) In clause (iv), the expressions "first ten/twenty years of service", and "next ten years of service" shall be omitted.

III. For sub-rule (1) of rule 9, the following sub-rule shall be substituted, namely:—

- (1) The earned leave admissible to an officer in permanent employ is one-eleventh of the period spent on duty:

Provided that he will cease to earn such leave when the earned leave due amounts to 180 days.

Exception.—The earned leave admissible to an officer of non-Asiatic domicile recruited in India who is in continuous service from a date prior to the 1st February, 1949, and is entitled to leave passages, is one-seventh of the period spent on duty and he ceases to earn such leave when the earned leave due amounts to 180 days."

IV. For sub-rule (b) of rule 10, the following sub-rule shall be substituted, namely:—

- (b) The earned leave admissible to such an officer in respect of any year in which he is prevented from availing himself of the full vacation is such proportion of 30 days (or 45 days in the case of an officer mentioned in the exception to sub-rule (1) of rule 9) as the number of days of vacation not taken bears to the full vacation.

If in any year the officer does not avail himself of the vacation, earned leave will be admissible to him in respect of that year in accordance with the provisions of rule 9."

V. For sub-rule (a) of rule 11, the following sub-rule shall be substituted, namely:—

- (a) The half pay leave admissible to an officer in permanent employ in respect of each completed year of service is 20 days."

VI. In rule 12—

CUSTOMS

New Delhi, the 15th June 1957

S.R.O. 1949.—The following draft of certain rules which the Central Government proposes to make in exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (3) of section 43-B of the Sea Customs Act, 1878 (8 of 1878), as in force in India and as applied to the State of Pondicherry, is published as required by the said sub-section for the information of persons likely to be affected thereby; and notice is hereby given that the said draft will be taken into consideration on or after the 15th July, 1957.

Any objection or suggestion which may be received from any person with respect to the said draft before the date so specified will be considered by the Central Government.

DRAFT RULES

1. Short title.—These rules may be called the Customs Duties Drawback (Dichromates) Rules, 1957.

2. Definitions.—In these rules, unless the context otherwise requires,—

- (a) 'Act' means the Sea Customs Act, 1878 (8 of 1878);
- (b) 'goods' means any or all of the following chemicals, namely:—
sodium dichromate dihydrate, anhydrous sodium dichromate, potassium dichromate, ammonium dichromate and chromic acid manufactured in India or the State of Pondicherry and in the manufacture of which imported duty-paid soda ash of the heavy variety has been used;
- (c) 'imported material' means soda ash of the heavy variety imported into India or the State of Pondicherry on payment of customs duty;
- (d) 'quarter' means a period of three months beginning with the first day of January, the first day of April, the first day of July or the first day of October;
- (e) 'registered manufacturer' means a manufacturer in India or the State of Pondicherry of the goods registered under rule 4.

3. Goods in respect of which drawback may be paid.—Subject to the provisions of the Act and these rules, a drawback shall be allowed in the case of goods manufactured in India or the State of Pondicherry by a registered manufacturer and exported therefrom or shipped as stores for use on board a ship proceeding to a foreign port in respect of the imported material used in the manufacture of such goods.

4. Registration of manufacturer.—(1) A drawback under these rules shall be admissible only in respect of goods manufactured by a person registered under, and for the purposes of, these rules by a Chief Customs Officer authorised in this behalf by the Chief Customs Authority and hereinafter referred to as the authorised Chief Customs Officer.

(2) An application for registration shall be made by a manufacturer of any goods to the authorised Chief Customs Officer, furnishing particulars of—

- (i) each variety of the goods in respect of which registration is required,

(ii) the net weight of imported material used in the manufacture of every hundredweight of each variety of the goods, and

(iii) such other information as the authorised Chief Customs Officer may require for the purposes of these rules.

(3) In the application for registration, the manufacturer shall furnish an undertaking that no indigenous soda ash will either be used in the manufacture of the goods or be stored within the precincts of the manufactory.

(4) The authorised Chief Customs Officer may, if he is satisfied that the provisions of this rule have been complied with, register the applicant as a registered manufacturer.

(5) Any registered manufacturer contravening the provisions of sub-rule (3) shall render himself liable to have his registration cancelled without prejudice to any other penalty to which he may be liable under the Act and those rules,

5. Rate of drawback.—(1) Where the Customs Collector is satisfied that the claim for a drawback is established under these rules, such drawback shall be paid at the rates indicated hereunder:—

(2) The rate of drawback of duty admissible for every one hundredweight of goods exported under claim for drawback shall be as indicated below against each variety of goods.

Variety of goods	Rate of drawback per hundredweight of goods exported.
(1) Sodium dichromate dihydrate	Seven-eighths of the duty payable on eighty pounds of soda ash at the lowest rate of duty applicable, irrespective of the country of origin, during the six months preceding the quarter in which shipment is made
(2) Anhydrous sodium dichromate	Seven-eighths of the duty payable on ninety-one pounds of soda ash at the lowest rate of duty applicable irrespective of the country of origin, during the six months preceding the quarter in which shipment is made.
(3) Potassium dichromate	Seven-eighths of the duty payable on eighty-two and half pounds of soda ash at the lowest rate of duty applicable irrespective of the country of origin, during the six months preceding the quarter in which shipment is made.
(4) Ammonium dichromate	Seven-eighths of the duty payable on ninety-five pounds of soda ash at the lowest rate of duty applicable, irrespective of the country of origin, during the six months preceding the quarter in which shipment is made.
(5) Chromic acid	Seven-eighths of the duty payable on one hundred and twenty pounds of soda ash, irrespective of the country of origin, during the six months preceding the quarter in which shipment is made.

6. Manner of allowing drawback.—(1) A drawback under these rules shall be allowed on the shipment of the goods subject to the following conditions, namely:—

(a) that the shipper shall make a declaration on the relative shipping bill—

(i) that a claim for the drawback under section 43-B of the Act is being made, and

(ii) that the goods are manufactured by the registered manufacturer whose name is shown in the shipping bill;

- (b) the shipper shall, in the shipping bill, furnish, in addition to the particulars required under section 29 of the Act, name of the registered manufacturer of the goods and such other additional particulars as may, in the opinion of the Customs Collector, be necessary for the purpose of verifying the claim for the drawback;
  - (c) that the goods are packed in tamper-proof containers bearing detailed description on their outside of the quantity, brand, variety of the goods contained therein; and
  - (d) that the goods have not been tampered with since their removal from the manufactory of the registered manufacturer, and a certificate to this effect is furnished by the shipper on the shipping bill.
- (2) No drawback shall be admissible under these rules in any case where the provisions of sub-rule (3) of rule 4 have been contravened.

7. Return to be furnished by the registered manufacturer.—(1) A registered manufacturer shall, at the beginning of every quarter, furnish, in respect of the quarter last preceding, a return in the form annexed to these rules.

(2) For the purpose of verifying the return under sub-rule (1), the Customs Collector may scrutinise accounts, vouchers, stock registers and such other documents in the possession of the registered manufacturer as he may consider fit, check actual stocks and draw samples for testing the quality of the soda ash stored or used within the precincts of the manufactory and the registered manufacturer shall be bound to afford all reasonable facilities to the Customs Collector and furnish such information or such explanation as the Customs Collector may require.

(3) The Customs Collector may withhold the payment of any claim for drawback arising during any quarter until such time as the return for that quarter has been furnished and verified as provided in this rule.

8. Powers of the authorised Chief Customs Officer or the Customs Collector.—For the purposes of enforcing these rules, the authorised Chief Customs Officer or the Customs Collector may require—

- (a) a registered manufacturer to produce any books of account or other documents of whatever nature relating to the proportion and quantity of the imported material used in the manufacture of each of the different varieties of the goods, and
- (b) the production of such certificates, documents and other evidence in support of each claim for drawback as may be necessary.

9. Access to manufactory.—A registered manufacturer of goods in respect of which a drawback is claimed shall be bound to give access to every part of his manufactory to an officer of the Central Government specially authorised in this behalf by the authorised Chief Customs Officer to enable such authorised officer to inspect the process of manufacture to draw samples of soda ash stored within the precincts of the manufactory and to verify by actual check or otherwise the particulars furnished by such registered manufacturer in support of his claim for the drawback.

CENTRAL BOARD OF REVENUE

INCOME TAX

New Delhi, the 15th June 1957

S.R.O. 1951.—The following draft of certain further amendments to the Indian Income-tax Rules, 1922, which the Central Board of Revenue proposes to make in exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (1) of section 59 of the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922 (11 of 1922), is published as required by sub-section (4) of the said section, for the information of all persons likely to be affected thereby and notice is hereby given that the said draft will be taken into consideration on or after the 20th July, 1957. Any objection or suggestion which may be received from any person in respect of the said draft before the date so specified will be considered by the said Board.

Draft Amendment

In rule 45 of the said Rules, for item 2, the following item shall be substituted, namely:—

- "2. Diploma in Commerce issued under the authority of the Government concerned in the States of Madras, Andhra Pradesh, West Bengal, Punjab and Mysore and in the Union territory of Delhi."

Explanatory Note

(This does not form a part of the notification but is intended to be merely clarificatory).

The amendments have been necessitated due (1) to the inclusion of the diploma awarded by Mysore Government in the qualifications prescribed and (2) the reorganisation of the Indian States.

[No. 70(21/33/56-IT.)]

S.R.O. 1952.—In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (6) of section 5 of the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922 (11 of 1922), the Central Board of Revenue hereby makes the following further amendment in its Notification No. S.R.O. 1214 (No. 44-Income-tax) dated the 1st July, 1952, namely:—

In the schedule annexed to the said Notification for the existing entry in column 3 against S. No. 78C the following shall be substituted, namely:—

"The Income-tax Officer having jurisdiction over the area, comprised in the former Indian States, in which the persons specified in col. 2, carried on business; or in whose jurisdiction the principal place of business, where business was carried on by the said persons at more places than one, or the place where the persons resided, if no business was carried on, falls."

Explanatory Note

(This does not form a part of the amendment but is intended to be merely clarificatory.)

The amendment is being made to clarify the jurisdiction of the Income-tax Officer.

INCOME-TAX

New Delhi, the 6th June 1957

S.R.O. 1953.—In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (1) of Section 59 of the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922, (XI of 1922), the Central Board of Revenue hereby makes the following rules for the purposes of sub-section (2) of Section 37 of the said Act, the same having been previously published as required by sub-section (4) of Section 59 of the said Act namely:—

1. These rules may be called the Income-tax (Search of Premises and Seizure of Documents) Rules, 1957.

2. The Commissioner of Income-tax may, for reasons recorded, issue a written order under his own signature and bearing his seal, specially authorizing any Income-tax Officer, subordinate to him to enter any building, or place to be specified therein where he has reason to believe that books of accounts or other documents which, in his opinion, will be relevant to or useful for any proceedings under the Income-tax Act, 1922, may be found. Such order may authorise the Income-tax Officer to do all or any of the following acts, namely:—

- (a) to enter the said building, or place with such assistance of police officers as may be required;
- (b) to search the same and to place identification marks on such books of account or other documents found therein as, in his opinion, will be relevant to or useful for any proceedings under the Act and to make a list of such books or documents with particulars of the identification marks thereon;
- (c) to examine such books or documents and to make copies of or extracts from such books or documents;
- (d) to take possession of or seize any such books or documents;
- (e) to make a note or an inventory of any other article or thing found in the course of such search which, in his opinion, will be useful for or relevant to any proceedings under the Act;
- (f) to convey such books or documents to the office of the Income-tax Officer or any other authority not below the rank of Income-tax Officer employed in the execution of the Act.

3. Whenever any building or place authorised to be searched is closed, any person residing in or being in charge of such building or place shall, on demand by the Income-tax Officer and on production of the authority, allow him free ingress thereto and afford all reasonable facilities for a search therein.

4. If ingress into such building or place cannot be so obtained it shall be lawful for the Income-tax Officer exercising the authority, with such assistance of a police officer as may be required, to enter such building or place and search therein and in order to effect an entrance into such building or place, to break open any outer or inner door or window of any building or place, whether that of the person to be searched or of any other person, if after notification of his authority and purpose and demand of admittance duly made, he cannot otherwise obtain admittance:

Provided that, if any such building or place is an apartment in actual occupancy of a woman, who according to custom does not appear in public, the Income-tax Officer shall, before entering such apartment, give notice to such woman that she is at liberty to withdraw and shall afford her every reasonable facility for withdrawing and may then break open the apartment and enter it.

5. Where any person in or about such building or place is reasonably suspected of concealing about his person any article for which search is being made, such person may also be searched by the Income-tax Officer with such assistance as he may consider necessary. If such person is a woman, the search shall be made by another woman with strict regard to decency.

6. Before making a search, the Income-tax Officer about to make it shall call upon two or more respectable inhabitants of the locality in which the building, or place to be searched is situate to attend and witness the search and may issue an order in writing to them or any of them so to do.

7. The search shall be made in the presence of the witnesses aforesaid and a list of all things seized in the course of such search and of the places in which they were respectively found shall be prepared by the Income-tax Officer and signed by such witnesses; but no person witnessing a search shall be required to attend as a witness of the search in any proceedings under the Act unless specially summoned.

8. The occupant of the building or place searched or some person in his behalf shall be permitted to attend during the search and a copy of the list prepared under rule 7 shall be delivered to such occupant or person. A copy shall also be forwarded to the Commissioner.

9. When any person is searched under rule 5, a list of all things taken possession of shall be prepared and copy thereof shall be delivered to such person. A copy shall also be forwarded to the Commissioner.

The order of the Commissioner referred to in Rule 2 shall be in the following form:

Warrant of Authorization under Section 37(2) of the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922 (XI of 1922) and Rule 2 of the Income-tax (Search of Premises and Seizure of documents) Rules, 1957.

To

(The Income-tax Officer)

Whereas information has been laid before me and on the consideration thereof I have been led to believe that certain books of account and/or documents which are or may be relevant to or useful for proceedings under the above Act in the case (name of the assessee with G.I.R. No. ) have been kept and are to be found at (specify particulars of the building or place).

This is to authorise and require you

(Name of the Income-tax Officer)

- (a) to enter and search with such assistance of police officers as may be required, the said premises;
- (b) to place identification marks on such books and documents as may be found in the course of the search and as you may consider relevant to or useful for the proceedings aforesaid and to make a list thereof together with particulars of the identification marks;
- (c) to examine such books and/or documents and make copies or extracts from such books and documents;
- (d) to seize such books of account and/or documents, and take possession thereof;
- (e) to convey such books or documents to the office of the Income-tax Officer or any other authority not below the rank of an Income-tax Officer employed in the execution of the Act; and
- (f) to exercise all other powers and duties under the said section and the rules relating thereto.

Commissioner of Income-tax."

Explanatory Note

(This note is not a part of the above rules but is intended to be merely clarificatory.)

Section 37(2) of the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922, provides that any Income-tax Officer specially authorized by the Commissioner of Income-tax may enter and search any building or place where he has reason to believe that any books of account or other documents may be found which, in his opinion, will be useful for purposes of any proceeding under the said Act. He may also seize any such books or documents and make a note or inventory of any other article or thing found in the course of the search which, in his opinion, will be useful for or relevant to any proceedings under the Act.

As provided in the section, these rules have been framed for the purposes mentioned above.
